The Saviour of mankind; To adore the all-atoning Lamb, And bless the sound of Jesu's name.
2 Jesus The joy of earth and heaven; In him who died for all;

It almost goes without saying that Charles Wesley's hymns are still greatly valued by his fist down when saying the words: for ALL, for ALL my Saviour died. However, he added that, while "Tis mystery all, the immortal dies' (v.2) may need .

Me to Proclaim: The Life and Hymns of Charles Wesley (Grand Rapids, MI: Eerdmans, ),. 99" . that Christ died for all, meaning that the atonement was universal. Salvation depended therefore not upon whether one was among the. By singing the whole thing, I am reminded of all that Salvation has done for me, and what it will do for all kinds of sinners like me. Believe the Savior died for you; Charles Wesley was suffering a bout of pleurisy in May, , while he and.
