

In this book you will be treated to a magnificent selection of both studio and plein air works by nationally recognized and locally renowned artists. From their personal comments you will discover what attracted them to various scenes while learning about locations throughout the state. You may have had the opportunity to view photo books and tourist guides featuring North Carolina, but there is nothing as enlightening as seeing the location you love or have always wanted to visit through an artists eye. The artists view adds a whole new dimension and enhances our ability to appreciate our surroundings. The paintings within these pages remind us of the extraordinary beauty that surrounds us every day. With paintings by Brenda Behr, Scott Boyle, Allison Chambers, Lynda Chambers, Diana L.
